We are looking for participants who are eager and open to:

- learn and explore the piano both as students and teachers;
- actively engage in the Tholen Fellows program by coming prepared to lessons/coaching sessions;
- devote time and energy necessary to the process;
- participate in evaluation of the program.

Please initial each statement below:

____ I understand that commitment to the program is two years long and I am willing and able to commit to the full two years of study.

____ I agree to participate in the evaluation process (both of myself and of my master teacher) at the end of each year of study.
